Officially, Two down - Eight to go! Ndoni and Nachibanga handed over.

The Irrigation Development Support Project - IDSP has officially handed over Ndoni and Nachibanga dams, two of the ten dams under remediation to the Government of the Republic of Zambia. This was at a well attended ceremony officiated by the Minister of Agriculture, Hon. Reuben Mutolo Phiri at Ndoni dam. Present also were Senior Government officials from Lusaka and Southern Province, IDSP, the Contractor and the local community. Ndoni and Nachibanga become the first two dams to be officially handed over after completion.
